

The Fourty Nawawi Ahaadith

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

The First Hadith

Actions are based on intentions

Umar ibn AL-khattab, (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Actions are based on intentions, and everyone will have what they have intended. Whoever's migration was to Allah and His Messenger, then their migration is to Allah and His Messenger, but whoever's migration was for some parts of worldly life that they wished to acquire, or for a woman to marry, then their migration was for whatever they migrated for. It was narrated by Abo Abdullah Mohammad Bin Esmaiel Al-Bukhaari, Hadith Number (1) It was narrated also by Abo Alhosaen Muslim Bin Alhajaj Hadith Number (1907) (may Allah be pleased with both of them) Book of Hadith narrated by (Bukhaari and Muslim) are One of the best books in the narration of the Islamic Hadith

The Second Hadith

The angel Gabriel, (may Allah exalt his mention) who comes down to teach Muslims Their religion

Umar ibn Al-Khattab, (may Allah be pleased with him), reported that: While we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, one day, a man who had an extremely white garment on, who had extremely black hair, and who did not have any traces of travel, came to us. None of us knew him. He sat with the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, so close that their knees touched. He placed his hands on his thighs and said: O Muhammad, tell me about Islaam. the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Islaam is to testify that there is no deity worthy of worship besides Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, establish prayer, give obligatory charity, fast Ramadhaan, and perform pilgrimage if you are able. The man said: You have stated the truth. We were amazed by him; he asked him, but then declared him as having told the truth. Then, he said: Tell me about faith. the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: It is to believe in Allah, His angels, Books, messengers, the Last Day, and the good and bad parts of predestination. The man said: You have stated the truth. Tell me about Ihsaan (perfection). The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. If you cannot see Him, He Sees you. The man said: Tell me about the Hour. The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: The one being asked is no more knowledgeable than the one asking. The man said: Tell me of its signs. The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: It is when a slave girl gives birth to her master, and when you find barefoot, naked, poor shepherds competing in building structures. Then, he left, and I remained for a short while. Then, the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: O `Umar, do you know who that questioner was? I said: Allaah and His Messenger know more. He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: That was Jibreel (the angel), may Allah exalt his mention, who came to teach you your religion. narrated by: Muslim, Hadith N.(8)

The Third Hadith

Islam has been built on five pillars

Ibn `Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Islam has been built on five: Testifying that there is no deity worthy of worship and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, establishing prayer, giving obligatory charity, pilgrimage, and fasting Ramadhaan. Narrated by: Bukhaari Hadith N.(8) and Muslim, Hadith N.(16)

The Fourth Hadith

Each one of you is brought together in their mother's womb

Abdullaah ibn Mas`ood, may Allah be pleased with him, said: The Messenger of Allah, the truthful and believed one, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: The creation of each one of you is brought together in their mother's womb for forty days in the form of a drop, then they become a clot of blood for a similar period, then a morsel of flesh for a similar period, then there is sent to him the angel who blows his soul into him and who is commanded with four matters: the angel is ordered to write their sustenance, lifespan, their actions, and if they will be happy or miserable. By the One besides Whom there is no deity worthy of worship (Swearing to Allah (God)) , one of you would do the actions of the people of Paradise until there is merely a hand span between them and Paradise, but what was predestined overtakes them, causing them to do actions of the people of Hellfire, and they enter Hellfire. Also, one of you would do the actions of the people of Hellfire until they are merely a hand span away from Hellfire, but what was predestined overtakes them, causing them to do actions of the people of Paradise, and they enter Paradise.

Narrated by: Bukhaari, Hadith N.(3208) and Muslim Hadith N.(2643)

The Fifth Hadith

Whoever does something that is not in accordance with this matter of ours (meaning Islam) shall have it rejected

Aa'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:Whoever invents something in this affair of ours (meaning Islam) that is not a part of it will have it rejected.Narrated by: Bukhaari, Hadith N.(2697) and Muslim Hadith N.(1718)

In the narration for Muslim:

Whoever does something that is not in accordance with this matter of ours (meaning Islam) shall have it rejected.

The Sixth Hadith

The lawful is clear, and the unlawful is clear.

An-Nu`maan ibn Basheer, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:The lawful is clear, and the unlawful is clear, and there are matters between them that are unclear that not many people know of. Whoever avoids the unclear matters saves their religion and honor from being blamed, but whoever falls into the unclear matters has fallen into unlawful matters. It is similar to a shepherd herding their sheep close to a restricted land; they will imminently fall into it. Every king has a restricted area, and the restricted area of Allah is His prohibitions. In the heart, there is a piece of flesh, if it is upright, the rest of the body follows, and if it is corrupted, the rest of the body follows. The piece of flesh is the heart.Narrated by: Bukhaari, Hadith N.(52) and Muslim Hadith N.(1599)

The seventh Hadith

Religion is sincerity/sincere advice

Tameem Ad-Daari, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Prophet of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:

Religion is sincerity. They said: To whom? He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: To Allah, His Book, His Messenger, the leaders of the Muslims, and the common Muslims. Narrated by: Muslim Hadith (N.55)

The eighth Hadith

I have been ordered to fight the people

Ibn `Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:I have been ordered to fight the people until they testify that there is no deity worthy of worship besides Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, establish prayer, and give obligatory charity. If they do so, then their wealth and blood are protected from me except through the right of Islam, and their accounting is with Allah the Exalted.Narrated by: Bukhaari,Hadith (N.25) and Muslim Hadith (N.22)

The ninth Hadith

Anything I prohibit you from doing, then abstain from it

Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that he heard the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Anything I prohibit you from doing, then abstain from it, and anything I order you to do, then do as much of it as you are able. Those who have come before you were destroyed because of their constant questioning and bickering with their prophets. Narrated by: Bukhaari, Hadith (N.7288) and Muslim Hadith (N.1337)

The tenth Hadith

O people! Allah is Good and accepts only that which is good.

Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: O people! Allah is Good and accepts only that which is good, and Allah has ordered the believers with the same that He ordered the Messengers, Saying: {O messengers, eat from the good foods and work righteousness. Indeed, I, of what you do, am Knowing.} [QUR'AAN 23:51] And: {O you who have believed, eat from the good things which We have provided for you.} [QUR'AAN 2:172] Then, he mentioned the situation of a man who travels far away, is dirty and unkempt, but raises his hands to the sky, stating: „O Lord, O Lord,“ while his food, drink, clothes, and nourishment are all unlawful, so, how can his supplication be answered? Narrated by: Muslim N.(1015)

The eleventh Hadith

Leave what you doubt for what you do not doubt.

Al-Hasan ibn `Ali, the grandson of the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, and his beloved, said: that he memorized that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Leave what you doubt for what you do not doubt. Narrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.2520), and An-Nasaa'i (N.5711) At-Tirmithi said: a good and correct hadith.

The twelfth Hadith

A part of a person's good Islaam

Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: A part of a person's good Islaam is that they abandon what does not concern them. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.2318), and Ibn Maajah (N.3976)

The thirteenth Hadith

None of you will be a believer till he wishes for his fellow-brother what he wishes for himself.

Abu Hamzah Anas ibn Maalik, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Prophet Muhammad, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: None of you will be a believer till he wishes for his fellow-brother what he wishes for himself. Narrated by: Bukhaari, (N.13) and Muslim (N.45)

The fourteenth Hadith

The blood of a Muslim is only made lawful through one of three things

Abdullaah ibn Mas'ood, may Allaah be pleased with him, reported that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: The blood of a Muslim who testifies that there is no deity worthy of worship besides Allah and that I am the messenger of Allah is only made lawful through one of three things: Adultery, retribution, and abandonment of one's religion and parting with the congregation. Narrated by: Bukhaari (N.6878) and Muslim (N.1676)

The fifteenth Hadith

Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should either say something good

Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) said:Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should either say something good, or remain silent. Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should honor their neighbor. Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should honor their guest.Narrated by: Bukhaari (N.6018) and Muslim (N.47)

The sixteenth Hadith

Do not become angry.

Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that someone said to the Prophet of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam: Give me advice. The Prophet of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:Do not become angry. The man repeated his question numerous times, and the Prophet of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, kept saying: Do not become angry.Narrated by: Bukhaari (N.6116)

The seventeenth Hadith

Allah has written good conduct for everything

Shaddaad ibn Aws, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:Allah has written good conduct for everything. If one of you kills, they should do so in a good manner, and if one of you slaughters, they should do so in a good manner. One should sharpen their blade and comfort their sacrificial animal.Narrated by: Muslim (N.1955)

The eighteenth Hadith

Have Taqwa of Allah wherever you are

Abu Tharr, may Allah be pleased with him, and Mu`aath ibn Jabal, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:Have Taqwa of Allah wherever you are, follow an evil action with a good deed, and it will erase it, and treat people with good conductNarrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.1987)At-Tirmithi said: a good and correct hadith

The nineteenth Hadith

Be mindful of Allah, and He will preserve you.

Abdullaah ibn `Abbaas, may Allah be pleased with him, said:I was riding behind the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, and he said:O boy, I will teach you some phrases: Preserve Allah and He will preserve you. Preserve Allah and you will find Him at your side. If you ask, ask of Allah, and if you seek help, seek it from Allah. Know that if the entire Ummah wanted to benefit you, they would not be able to benefit you except in something Allah The Almighty has written or you, and if they entirely wanted to harm you, they would not be able to harm you except in something Allah The Almighty has written for you. The pens have been raised and the parchments have dried.Narrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.2516)and he ruled it as authentic Hadith.This has also been reported by othersPreserve Allah and you will find Him before you. Know that there is much goodness in showing patience in wake of what you dislike, that victory comes with patience, that relief comes after the distress, and that with hardship comes ease."

The twentieth Hadith

If you have no shame, do as you wish.

Abu Mas`ood Al-Badri, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said:Some speech of the previous prophets which has reached the people is: If you have no shame, do as you wish.Narrated by: Bukhaari (N.3483)

The twenty-first Hadeeth

Say: I believe in Allah, then remain steadfast.

Sufyaan ibn `Abdullaah, may Allah be pleased with him, said: I said: O Allah's Messenger, tell me something about Islaam that I can ask none but you. He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Say: I believe in Allah, then remain steadfast. Narrated by: Muslim (N.38)

The twenty-second Hadith

If I were to pray the obligatory prayers, fast Ramadhaan

Jaabir, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that a man asked the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam: If I were to pray the obligatory prayers, fast Ramadhaan, perform the lawful, and avoid the unlawful, without increasing anything on that, would I enter Paradise? The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Yes. The man said: By Allah, I will not add anything to that. He said: Perform the lawful and avoid the unlawful. Narrated by: Muslim (N.15)

Hadith 23

Purity is half of faith

Abu Maalik Al-Ash`ari, may Allah be pleased with him, said that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Purity is half of faith, Al-Hamdu Lillaah [All praise is for Allah] fills the scale, and Subhaana Allah wal-Hamdu Lillaah [Transcendent is Allah and all praise is for Allah] fills what is between the heavens and the earth. Prayer is a light, charity is evidence, patience is illumination, and the Qur'aan is either a proof for or against you. Every person departs and sells their soul, and they either ransom it or put it into perdition. Narrated by: Muslim (N.223)

Hadeeth 24

O My servants! I have forbidden oppression for Myself

Abu Tharr, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, reported that Allah the Exalted Said: O My servants! I have forbidden oppression for Myself, and I have made it forbidden amongst you, so do not oppress one another. O My servants, all of you are astray except those whom I have guided, so seek guidance from Me and I shall guide you. O My servants, all of you are hungry except those whom I have fed, so seek food from Me and I shall feed you. O My servants, all of you are naked except those whom I have clothed, so seek clothing from Me and I shall clothe you. O My servants, you commit sins by day and by night, and I forgive all sins, so seek forgiveness from Me and I shall forgive you. O My servants, you will not attain harming Me so as to harm Me, and you will not attain benefiting Me so as to benefit Me. O My servants, if the first of you and the last of you, and the humans of you and the Jinn of you, were all as pious as the most pious heart of any individual amongst you, then this would not increase My Kingdom an iota. O My servants, if the first of you and the last of you, and the humans of you and the Jinn of you, were all as wicked as the most wicked heart of any individual amongst you, then this would not decrease My Kingdom an iota. O My servants, if the first of you and the last of you, and the humans of you and the Jinn of you, were all to stand together in one place and ask of Me, and I were to give everyone what he requested, then that would not decrease what I Possess, except what is decreased of the ocean when a needle is dipped into it. O My servants, it is but your deeds that I account for you, and then recompense you for. So whoever finds good should praise Allah, and whoever finds other than that, let them blame no one but themselves. Narrated by: Muslim (N.2577)

Hadeeth 25

The wealthy people have taken all the rewards

Abu Dharr al-Ghifari, may Allah be pleased with him, reported: "Some of the Companions said to the Prophet, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him: 'O Messenger of Allah! The wealthy people have taken all the rewards. They pray as we pray and fast as we fast, but they give charity from their excess wealth.' He said: 'Has

Allah not given you something to give as charity? Every utterance of 'glory be to Allah' is charity; every utterance of 'Allah is the Greatest' is charity; every utterance of 'praise be to Allah' is charity; every utterance of 'there is no god but Allah' is charity; commanding the right is charity; forbidding the wrong is charity; and there is charity in sexual intercourse.' He was asked: 'O Messenger of Allah! Does one of us satisfy his desire and he is rewarded for that?' He replied: 'What do you see if he satisfied it unlawfully, shall he not incur a sin? Likewise, if he satisfies it lawfully, he shall get a reward.' Narrated by: Muslim (N.1006)

Every joint of a person must perform a charity

Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Every joint of a person must perform a charity each day that the sun rises: to judge justly between two people is a charity. To help a man with his mount, lifting him onto it or hoisting up his belongings onto it, is a charity. The good word is a charity. Every step that you take towards the prayer is a charity, and removing a harmful object from the road is a charity. Narrated by: Bukhaari, (N.2989) and Muslim (N.1009)

Hadith 27

Piety is having good character

An-Nawwaas ibn Sam'aan, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Piety is having good character, and sin is the action that disturbs you and you dislike people seeing you do. Narrated by: Muslim (N.2553) Waabisah ibn Ma'bad, may Allah be pleased with him, said: I went to the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, and he said: Have you come to ask about piety and sin?" I said: „Yes." He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: „Ask your heart. Piety is what your soul feels tranquil doing and the heart feels serene, and sin is what disturbs your soul and causes your chest to hesitate, even if people continuously give you rulings [that it is permissible]. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: Musnad Ahmad (N.4/227) and Al-Dārimi (N.2/246) This Hadīth has a good chain of narrators

Hadith 28

I advise you to fear Allah

Al-`Irbaadh ibn Saariyah, may Allah be pleased with him, said: The Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, gave us an eloquent admonition which caused the eyes to shed tears and the hearts to become afraid. Someone then said: „This is the admonition of someone who will soon part. What do you charge us with doing?" He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: „I advise you to fear Allah and to hear and obey, even if an Ethiopian slave were placed in charge of you. Any of you who live after me will see much differing. Beware of newly invented matters, because they are misguided. Any of you who lives to reach those matters should hold fast to my Sunnah and that of the rightly guided Caliphs. Bite onto it with your molar teeth. Narrated by: Abu Dawood (N.4607) and At-Tirmithi (N.266) and he ruled it as authentic Hadith.

Hadith 29

Worship Allah the Exalted without associating anything in worship with Him

Mu'aath ibn Jabal, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "I was with the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, while traveling, and one day, I was close to him while we were treading, so I said: „O Allah's Messenger, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, tell me of an action which would cause me to enter Paradise and would create a distance between myself and the Hellfire." He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: You have asked me about a great matter, and it is easy on those whom Allah the Exalted makes it easy for. Worship Allah the Exalted without associating anything in worship with Him, establish the prayers, give obligatory charity, fast Ramadhaan, and perform Hajj." Then he, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: „Shall I not guide you to the doors of goodness: Fasting is a protection, charity extinguishes mistakes just as water extinguishes fire, and prayer by a person during the middle of the night. Then, he, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, recited: {They arise from [their] beds; they supplicate their Lord in fear and aspiration, and from what We have provided them, they spend. And no soul knows what has been hidden for them of comfort for eyes as reward for what they used to do.} [QUR'AAN 32: 16-17] Then, he, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: "Shall I not inform you of the head of the matter, its pillar, and its peak?" Mu`aath, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "Yes, O Allah's Messenger." He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: "The head of the matter is Islam, its pillar is prayer, and its peak is Jihaad." Then he, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: "Shall I not tell you of the foundation of all that?" Mu`aath, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "Yes, O Allah's Prophet." He, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, then took his tongue and said: "Refrain from this." Mu`aath, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "O Prophet of Allah, are we held accountable for what we utter?" The Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: "May your mother lose you, O Mu`aath! Is there anything that throws people into the Hellfire upon their faces or on their noses except the harvests of their tongues?"

 Narrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.2616) and he ruled it as authentic Hadith.

Hadeeth 30

Allah the Exalted has obligated the obligations, so do not neglect them

Abu Tha`labah Al-Khushani, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Allah the Exalted has obligated the obligations, so do not neglect them. He has forbidden the prohibitions, so do not fall into them. He has set limits, so do not transgress them. Also, He has remained silent about other things, not out of forgetfulness, so do not ask about them. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: Ad-Daraqutni in his Sunan (4/184) and others

Hadeeth 31

Be an ascetic in this world, and Allah the Exalted will Love you

Sahl ibn Sa`d As-Saa`idi, may Allah be pleased with him, said that a man approached the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, and said: "O Allah's Messenger, guide me to an action which, if I do it, Allah will Love me, and people will love me." The Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, replied: Be an ascetic in this world, and Allah the Exalted will Love you, and be an ascetic regarding what is in the hands of the people, and the people will love you. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: Ibn Maajah (N.2516) and others with an authentic hadith

Hadeeth 32

There should be neither harm nor reciprocating of harm.

Abu Sa`eed Al-Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Prophet, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: There should be neither harming [Dharar] nor reciprocating harm [Dhiraar]. There should be neither harm nor reciprocating of harm. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: Ibn Maajah (N.2341) and Ad-Daraqutni in his Sunan (4/228) and others, Narrated by Maalik in al-Muwatta', (N.2341). This was reported through chains of narration that corroborate each other the onus of proof is on the plaintiff and the oath is upon the one who denies the claim.

Ibn `Abbaas, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Were people to be given everything that they claimed, some men would (unjustly) claim the properties and blood of (other) people. However, the onus of proof is on the plaintiff and the oath is upon the one who denies the claim. An authentic hadith. Narrated by: Al-Bayhaqi in his Sunan (10/252) and others

Hadith 34

Anyone who sees something evil, should change it by his hands.

Abu Sa`eed Al-Khudri, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: If one of you sees something reprehensible, they should change it with their hand, if they cannot, then with their tongue, and if they cannot, then with their heart, and that is the weakest of faith. Narrated by: Muslim (N.49)

Hadith 35

Do not be envious of one another

Abu Hurayrah (may Allah be pleased with him) reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Do not be envious of one another, do not inflate prices on one another, do not carry mutual hate for one another, do not turn away from one another, do not engage in selling to harm one another, and be as fellow brothers, O slaves of Allah. The Muslim is the brother of the Muslim; they should not oppress them, fail them, lie to them, or belittle them. Taqwa is here – and he, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, pointed to his heart three times – it is enough evil for a person to belittle their Muslim brother or Muslim. Everything of a Muslim is sacred to the Muslim, including their blood, wealth, and honor. Narrated by: Muslim (N.2564)

Hadith 36

Whoever relieves a believer of a distress of this life

Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Whoever relieves a believer of a distress of this life, Allah the Exalted will relieve them of a distress of the Day of Resurrection. If someone facilitates for someone needy, Allah the Exalted will facilitate for them in this life and the Hereafter. Whoever covers the faults of a Muslim, Allah the Exalted will cover their faults in this life and the Hereafter. Allah the Exalted will Aid the slave, as long as the slave aids their brother or sister. If someone takes a path of seeking knowledge, Allah the Exalted will facilitate and ease a way to Paradise for them. Every time a group gather in one of the houses of Allah, reciting the Book of Allah the Exalted and engaging in mutual study of it, tranquility descends on them, mercy encompasses them, the angels surround them, and Allah the Exalted will mention them with those with Him. If someone is slowed by their actions, they will not speed up with their lineage. Narrated by: Muslim (N.2699)

Hadith 37

Allah the Exalted has written the good deeds and sins

Ibn `Abbaas, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said in reporting from His Lord the Exalted: Allah the Exalted has written the good deeds and sins, and clarified them. If someone intends to do a good deed but does not do it, Allah the Exalted writes a complete good deed for them, and if they do it, Allah the Exalted will write it as ten good deeds, multiplied up to seven-hundred, to many more times. If someone intends to do a sin but does not, it will be written as a complete good deed. If they intend to do a sin and do it, Allah the Exalted will write it as one sin. Narrated by: Bukhaari, (N.6491) and Muslim (N.131)

Hadith 38

Whoever shows enmity to an ally of Mine, then I have declared war against him.

Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Allah the Exalted Said: Whoever shows enmity to an ally [Waliyy] of mine, I declare war against them. My servant does not draw near to Me with anything more loved by Me than the religious duties I have obligated on them, and My servant continues to draw near to Me with voluntary actions until I love them. When I love them I am their hearing with which they hear, their sight with which they see, their hand with which they strike and their foot with which they walk. Were they to ask [something] of Me, I would surely give it to them, and were they to ask Me for refuge, I would surely grant them it. I do not hesitate about anything as much as I hesitate about [seizing] the soul of My faithful servant: they hate death and I hate hurting them Narrated by: Bukhaari, (N.6502)

Hadith 39

Allah has pardoned for my sake the mistakes and forgetfulness of my Ummah

Ibn `Abbaas, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: Allah has pardoned for my sake the mistakes and forgetfulness of my Ummah, and what they were coerced to do An authentic hadith Narrated by: Ibn Maajah (N.2045) and Al-Bayhaqi in his Sunan (7)

Hadith 40

Be in this world as if you are a stranger or a wayfarer.

Ibn `Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, said: the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, took me by my shoulder and said: Be in this world as if you are a stranger or a wayfarer! Ibn `Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, used to say: If you sleep, do not await the day, and if you wake, do not wait the night. Take from your health for your sickness, and from your life for your death Narrated by: Bukhaari, (N.6416)

Hadith 41

No one of you (truly) believes until his personal desire complies with what I have come with Abdullaah ibn `Amr ibn Al-`Aas, may Allah be pleased with him, reported that the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, said: None of you will attain perfect faith until his personal desire complies with what I came with, which (the Islamic Shariah) An authentic hadith We narrated it in Al-Hujjah's book with an authentic chain of narrators.

Hadith 42

O son of Aadam, as long as you invoke Me and ask of Me

Anas ibn Maalik, may Allah be pleased with him, said that he heard the Messenger of Allah, sallallaahu `alayhi wa sallam, say: O son of Aadam, as long as you invoke Me and ask of Me, I shall forgive you for what you have done, and I shall not mind. O son of Aadam, were your sins to reach the clouds of the sky and you then asked forgiveness from Me, I would forgive you. O son of Aadam, were you to come to Me with sins nearly as great as the Earth, and were you then to face Me, ascribing no partner to Me, I would bring you forgiveness nearly as great as it [too]. Narrated by: At-Tirmithi (N.3540) and he ruled it as authentic Hadith.
